

Darby Valentine, APRN, AG-ACNP-BC, began her journey in nursing by earning her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from McNeese State University in 2011. She furthered her education with a Master of Science in Nursing from the University of South Alabama in 2019. Throughout her nursing career, Darby has gained diverse experience across various clinical settings, notably excelling as a registered nurse in intensive care units.

Specializing as an Adult-Gerontological Acute Care Nurse Practitioner certified by the ANCC, Darby has predominantly focused on neurosurgery. Her dedication to professional growth led her to pursue additional training in addiction medicine. Since 2016, Darby has proudly called Lafayette, Louisiana, her home, where she resides with her husband.
